Dear prospective Lotus Steps contributor,
 The Chinese Cultural Dance Club at UCLA (CCDC) has a mission to share Chinese culture through the art of dance. Since 2000, CCDC has grown into a professional, promising, and exciting performing arts student-led organization on the UCLA campus and in the Los Angeles communities. With the support of UCLA, performers, volunteers, and contributors, our success is made possible. This year, we are happy to announce our eleventh annual production, Lotus Steps 2010, to be held at UCLA's own world-renowned Royce Hall. We will be celebrating our heritage on Saturday, May 15, 2010 at 7:00pm.

The theme for Lotus Steps 2010 is "New Beginning." UCLA students and alumni choreographed dance pieces borrowed from classical, contemporary, ethnic, folk, and martial arts dance styles. The show will also feature performances from a collaborating community group, Families with Children from China—Southern California.

As we continue to prepare for Lotus Steps 2010, we desire to further our mission of sharing Chinese culture through dance. A 100% of your generous financial support for Lotus Steps will go towards the production costs, such as facilities, props, and costumes, making Lotus Steps 2010 possible. Without your help, we would not come this far. Please join us and our efforts in making our annual production a continued success!

Sincerely,
Jeslyn Xu
